

FAQ.

1. Do I need my blueprint to start posting?

It's best to post once your blueprint is ready for accurate quotes, but you can still post earlier to get tentative quotations.

2. How do I start using Preworks?

Simply download Preworks app, sign up, post your project details with your approved blueprint, and let verified contractors bid for your work.

3. Can I post if my project is only at the idea stage and do not have blueprint?

Yes, but contractors will give approximate, non-binding estimates until detailed drawings are available.

4. What if I just want to do the planning and sanctioning?

Yes! You can explore a curated list of architects with diverse styles and project sanctioning expertise. View their profiles, portfolios, and client reviews, all in one place.

5. What if my project budget changes after posting?

You can update your post anytime to reflect revised scope or budget so new quotes align better.

6. Can I get quotations for renovation or interiors?

Full quotation comparison is not available for renovation/interiors, but our help desk can share relevant contractor contacts from our database.

7. What details should I include for faster responses?

Mention project size, budget range, location, and stage of readiness to attract the most relevant contractors.

8. Who sees my contact information?

Only contractors whose quotations you open or respond to, keeping your privacy intact.

9. 6. How soon can I expect quotations from contractors?

Most verified contractors respond within 24-72 hours, depending on project complexity and location. But urgent projects can be prioritised by calling our helpline at 9011133089.

10. What will the quotation include?

A quotation will list the total cost of your project, broken into parts like materials, labour, and other charges. It will also mention the quality of materials, brand options, work timeline, and payment schedule.

11. Can I meet the contractor in person before finalising?

Yes. Most contractors are happy to meet at the site or your home for a consultation. You can coordinate visits through the app or your Preworks support contact.

12. Can I repost the same project later?

Yes, especially if the budget, scope, or design changes, reposting can attract fresh interest.

13. Do I have to pay to receive contractor quotes?

No, posting a project and receiving quotations is free for project owners.

14. How does Preworks ensure fair competition among contractors?

All contractors submit quotations without seeing others' prices, ensuring unbiased and fair bidding.

15. Can I negotiate directly with contractors after getting quotes?

Absolutely, once you choose which quotations to engage with, you can connect and discuss terms directly.

16. What if a contractor's work quality concerns me?

You can check their past projects, reviews, and ratings on their profile before proceeding.

17. Can Preworks assist in finalising my contractor choice?

Yes, while the decision is yours, our team can help you compare quotations objectively and clarify scope differences.
